Volume I, Issue II

Fall 2009

New State Approved EOP Assessments

The EOP assessment codes and names that are approved for 2009-2010 skills mastery are listed on our website under the link titled:

"Assessment Names and Codes"

CIP Codes

When assigning a CIP code please remember to use a valid CIP code, they are the ones on your Form 30 and are also listed on the Funding Crosswalk on our website. The CIP codes are listed under the link titled:

"2009-10 CTE Funding Crosswalk - DOE"

*Last year many schools had classes reported under wrong CIP codes. Remember the INTERS data MUST match your final Form 30A.

Correct SSN or Address

We must have a correct social security number OR ADDRESS for every student.

Also, EVERY student must have a Student Test Number (STN). The following new codes may be used when applicable:

Michigan Student - MICH12345
Home Schooled - HOME12345
Exchange Student - EXCH12345

If for any other reason a student does not have an STN please let us know.

New INTERS Update Soon

Within the next week or so we will have a new patch available, some of the things included in the new patch will be:

- Past Due Student Reports
- Label Reports Adjusted
- New User Rights Level
- New Universal Import Included

There will also be a new version of the universal import and web enrollment.

The new universal import will also be included within the INTERS update.
